

Related Services School Nursing Services

- Medical service - services provided by a licensed physician to determine the child's medically related disability that results in the child's need for special education and related services.
- School nursing services are services provided by a qualified school nurse.
- School health services are services provided by either a qualified school nurse or to the qualified person.

Please contact your Coordinator for specific questions and input in regards to Nursing Services.