

Sign Language Interpreting.

Sign language interpreting services are provided to deaf/hearing impaired students when this services is recommended by the student's IEP team and is documented on the services section of the student's IEP.

Questions about sign language interpreting should be directed to Laura Nichols - Exceptional Education Coordinator of Special Programs.